Re: Matthew Bleecker
CDCR No: AK3746
Case No: RIF14758 and SWF1101747
Date of Sentence: November 30, 2011, and September 2, 2011

Dear Honorable Judith Clark:

The purpose of this letter is to provide the court with the authority to resentence inmate Matthew Bleecker, AK3746, pursuant to Penal Code (PC) Section 1170.03 Subdivision (a)(1), based upon his exceptional conduct while incarcerated. PC Section 1170.03, Subdivision (a)(1) provides that upon recommendation of the Secretary of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR), the court consider and possibly recall a previously ordered sentence, provided the new sentence is no greater than the initial sentence.

As the Secretary of CDCR, I take my obligation to public safety very seriously and choose only to make exceptional conduct referrals when an inmate's behavior, while incarcerated, demonstrates a sustained compliance with departmental rules and regulations, as well as prolonged participation in rehabilitative programming. These inmates have not only exhibited exceptional conduct through their ability to obey rules and regulations, but many have also demonstrated a commitment to their rehabilitation through voluntary participation in various self-help programs, vocational and educational programs, and have displayed a dedicated participation in programs such as Prison Industry Authority, Division of Rehabilitative Programs, and the Integrated Substance Use Disorder Treatment program, to name a few.

Only the Warden of the institution where the inmate is incarcerated, can make a recommendation to the Secretary for consideration for potential resentencing referral. Once a recommendation is received, the inmate's case factors are compiled and then thoroughly reviewed by the Director of Adult Institutions. Only a select few cases are approved by the Secretary and referred to the court.

Inmate Bleecker has received one Rules Violation Report since being received to the CDCR on December 2, 2011, however, he has remained disciplinary free since October of 2012. Inmate Bleecker is currently assigned as a Paws for Life Porter. Inmate Bleecker is not currently assigned to any self-help groups. Inmate Bleecker has previously received two certificates from group sponsors acknowledging his commitment and dedication to these self-awareness and improvement groups. Inmate Bleecker has also received one letter of support from Correctional staff recognizing his efforts in the Paws for Life program.

Having reviewed the enclosed documentation it appears that inmate Bleecker's sentence warrants the attention of the court. Pursuant to PC Section 1170.03, Subdivision (a)(1), as the Secretary, I recommend the inmate's sentence be recalled and that he be resentenced.

Sincerely,

KATHLEEN ALLISON
Secretary
