Re: Sara Olivia Bravo
CDCR No: X36697
Case No: GA063991-01
Date of Sentence: April 6, 2009

Dear Honorable Janice Claire Croft:

The purpose of this letter is to provide the court with the authority to resentence inmate Sara Bravo, X36697, pursuant to Penal Code (PC) Section 1170, Subdivision (d)(1). PC Section 1170, subdivision (d)(1) provides that, upon recommendation of the Secretary of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR), the court may recall a previously ordered sentence, provided the new sentence is no greater than the initial sentence.

As the Secretary of CDCR, I take my obligation to public safety very seriously and choose only to make exceptional conduct referrals when an inmate's behavior, while incarcerated, demonstrates a sustained compliance with departmental rules, regulations and requirements as well as prolonged participation in rehabilitative programming. These inmates have not only exhibited exceptional conduct through their ability to obey rules and regulations, but have also demonstrated a commitment to their rehabilitation through voluntary participation in self-help programs.

Inmate Bravo has received one Administrative Rules Violation Report (RVR) since being received to CDCR on May 12, 2009, however, she has remained disciplinary free since February of 2017. Inmate Bravo is currently assigned as a Plant Operations, Refrigeration and Air Conditioning Helper. Inmate Bravo has participated in numerous Self-Help Programs available to her. Inmate Bravo has received 12 Laudatory Chrono's from group sponsors, work supervisors, and staff members acknowledging her commitment and dedication to Self-Help Programs, her excellent job performance and for her rehabilitative efforts and positive influence on other inmates. Inmate Bravo has also received two Associates of Arts Degree's in Art, Humanities and Social and Behavioral Sciences from Feather River College. Staff indicated she is a model inmate and they believe she is truly remorseful for her crime. Staff also indicated inmate Bravo is intelligent and a good worker and she has received multiple laudatory chronos from Correctional Officers that work in her Housing Unit, as well as her work supervisors who feel she would be able to successfully transition back into society.

Having reviewed the enclosed documentation, it appears that inmate Bravo's sentence warrants the attention of the court. Pursuant to PC Section 1170, Subdivision (d)(1), as the Secretary, I recommend the inmate's sentence be recalled and that she be resentenced.

Sincerely,

RALPH M. DIAZ
Secretary
