Re: Dennis James Bryley
CDCR No: G63389
Case No: LA056903-01
Date of Sentence: April 16, 2009

Dear Honorable Clifford L. Klein:

The purpose of this letter is to provide the court with the authority to resentence inmate Dennis Bryley, G63389 pursuant to Penal Code (PC) Section 1170, Subdivision (d)(1), based upon his exceptional conduct while incarcerated. PC Section 1170, subdivision (d)(1) provides that, upon recommendation of the Secretary of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR), the court may recall a previously ordered sentence, provided the new sentence is no greater than the initial sentence.

As the Secretary of CDCR, I take my obligation to public safety very seriously and choose only to make exceptional conduct referrals when an inmate's behavior, while incarcerated, demonstrates a sustained compliance with departmental rules, regulations and requirements as well as prolonged participation in rehabilitative programming. These inmates have not only exhibited exceptional conduct through their ability to obey rules and regulations, but have also demonstrated a commitment to their rehabilitation through voluntary participation in self-help programs.

Inmate Bryley is to be commended for remaining disciplinary free since being received to CDCR on June 5, 2009. Inmate Bryley is currently assigned as an Americans with Disabilities Act Worker and participates in Substance Abuse Recovery Support, Self-Help Groups. Inmate Bryley also participates in Health and Wellness and Inmate Leisure Time Activity Groups. Staff stated that they have had no issues with inmate Bryley and they consider him a programming inmate. Inmate Bryley is considered respectful and does any task asked of him.

The Honorable Clifford L. Klein

Having reviewed the enclosed documentation it appears that inmate Bryley's sentence warrants the attention of the court. Pursuant to PC Section 1170, Subdivision (d)(1), as the Secretary, I recommend the inmate's sentence be recalled and that he be resentenced.

Sincerely,

RALPH M. DIAZ
Secretary
