Re: Jahmal Aahmin Coleman
CDCR No: V39721
Case No: F429514
Date of Sentence: July 22, 2009

Dear Honorable Martin J. Tangeman:

The purpose of this letter is to provide the court with the authority to resentence inmate Coleman, V39721 pursuant to Penal Code (PC) Section 1170, Subdivision (d)(1). PC Section 1170, subdivision (d) provides that, upon recommendation of the Secretary of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR), the court may recall a previously ordered sentence, provided the new sentence is no greater than the initial sentence.

As the Secretary of CDCR, I take my obligation to public safety very seriously and choose only to make exceptional conduct referrals when an inmate's behavior, while incarcerated, demonstrates a sustained compliance with departmental rules, regulations and requirements as well as prolonged participation in rehabilitative programming. These inmates have not only exhibited exceptional conduct through their ability to obey rules and regulations, but have also demonstrated a commitment to their rehabilitation through voluntary participation in self-help programs.

Inmate Coleman is commended for remaining disciplinary free since being received to CDCR on August 6, 2009. Inmate Coleman is currently assigned as a Chaplain's Clerk/Porter. Inmate Coleman participates in Biblical Leadership, Celebrate Recovery Inside, College (Onsite), Narcotics Anonymous, and Alcoholics Anonymous. Inmate Coleman has also been commended for his dedication towards self-improvement for himself and others and has completed a prescribed course of study for the degree of Associate of Ministry.

The Honorable Martin J. Tangeman

Having reviewed the enclosed documentation it appears that Coleman's sentence warrants the attention of the court. Pursuant to PC Section 1170, Subdivision (d), as the Secretary, I recommend the inmate's sentence be recalled and that he be resentenced.

Sincerely,

RALPH M. DIAZ
Secretary
