Re: Jaron Emel Daniels
CDCR No: AD1395
Case No: MA046660-01
Date of Sentence: April 12, 2010

Dear Honorable Bernie C. LaForteza:

The purpose of this letter is to provide the court with the authority to resentence inmate Jaron Emel Daniels, AD1395 pursuant to Penal Code (PC) Section 1170, Subdivision (d)(1), based upon his exceptional conduct while incarcerated. PC Section 1170, subdivision (d)(1) provides that, upon recommendation of the Secretary of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR), the court may recall a previously ordered sentence, provided the new sentence is no greater than the initial sentence.

As the Secretary of CDCR, I take my obligation to public safety very seriously and choose only to make exceptional conduct referrals when an inmate's behavior, while incarcerated, demonstrates a sustained compliance with departmental rules, regulations and requirements as well as prolonged participation in rehabilitative programming. These inmates have not only exhibited exceptional conduct through their ability to obey rules and regulations, but have also demonstrated a commitment to their rehabilitation through voluntary participation in self-help programs.

Inmate Daniels has received one serious Rules Violation Report since being received to CDCR on May 10, 2010, however, he has remained disciplinary free since November of 2011. Inmate Daniels is currently assigned as a Clerk/ Literacy Tutor. Inmate Daniels participates in Narcotics Anonymous, Alcoholics Anonymous, Celebrate Recovery, and Getting Out by Going In, Self-Help Groups. He was previously involved with Setting My Goals for Success, Alternatives to Violence, Lifers and Long Termers Program, Creative Conflicts Resolutions, and Prisoners against Child Abuse. Inmate Daniels has received General and Laudatory Chrono's from these Self-Help Sponsors acknowledging his commitment and dedication to these Self-Awareness and Improvement Groups. Staff stated Daniels is a programmer.

Having reviewed the enclosed documentation it appears that inmate Daniels' sentence warrants the attention of the court. Pursuant to PC Section 1170, Subdivision (d)(1), as the Secretary, I recommend the inmate's sentence be recalled and that he be resentenced.

Sincerely,

(br)
RALPH M. DIAZ
Secretary
