Re: ESKRIDGE, GREGORY
CDCR No: K07041
Case No: NA024604-01
Date of Sentence: April 23, 1996

Dear Honorable James D. Otto:

The purpose of this letter is to provide the court with the authority to resentence inmate Gregory Eskridge, K07041 pursuant to Penal Code (PC) Section 1170, Subdivision (d)(1), based upon his exceptional conduct while incarcerated. PC Section 1170, Subdivision (d)(1) provides that, upon recommendation of the Secretary of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR), the court may recall a previously ordered sentence, provided the new sentence is no greater than the initial sentence.

As the Secretary of CDCR, I take my obligation to public safety very seriously and choose only to make exceptional conduct referrals when an inmate's behavior, while incarcerated, demonstrates a sustained compliance with departmental rules, regulations and requirements as well as prolonged participation in rehabilitative programming. These inmates have not only exhibited exceptional conduct through their ability to obey rules and regulations, but have also demonstrated a commitment to their rehabilitation through voluntary participation in self-help programs.

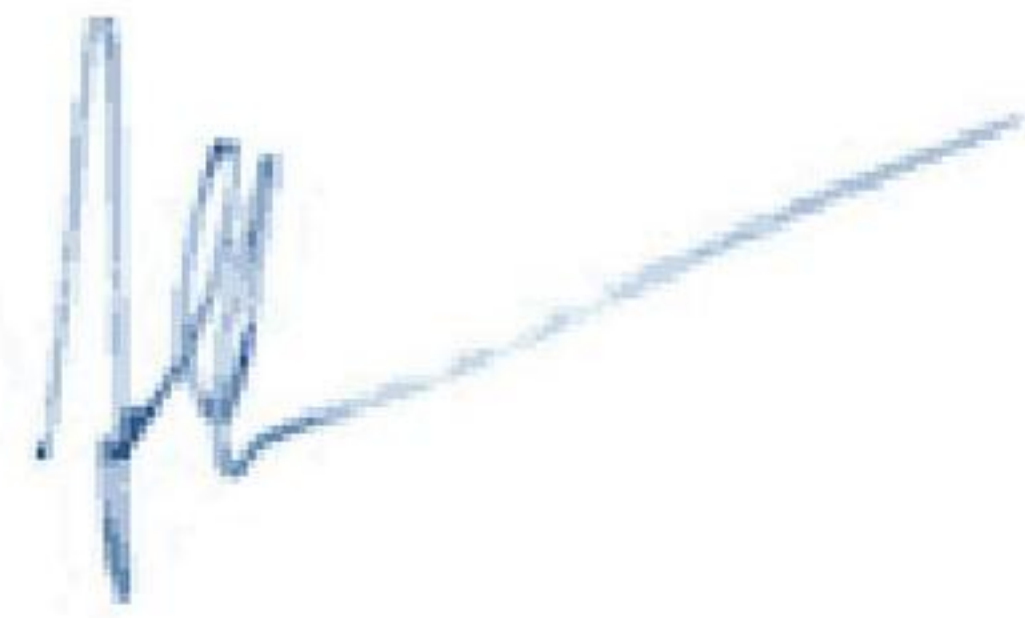

Inmate Eskridge has been found guilty of nine Rules Violation Reports but has remained free of any serious disciplinary action since June of 2012. Inmate Eskridge is currently assigned as a TV Video Production Technician and his most recent supervisor noted that he is an excellent employee with a great attitude and highly competent. Inmate Eskridge participates in Voluntary College, Substance Abuse Recovery Support Groups, Inmate Community Services Programs, Self-Awareness and Improvement Groups and Victim Offender Education Groups. Eskridge has received numerous certificates and laudatory chronos from these group sponsors acknowledging his commitment and dedication to these self-awareness and improvement groups.

Having reviewed the enclosed documentation it appears that inmate Eskridge's sentence warrants the attention of the court. Pursuant to PC Section 1170, Subdivision (d)(1), as the Secretary, I recommend the inmate's sentence be recalled and that he be resentenced.

Sincerely,
