Re: James Raphael Jacobs
CDCR No: V68070
Case No: VA082792
Date of Sentence: June 09, 2005

Dear Honorable L. Knupp:

The purpose of this letter is to provide the court with the authority to resentence inmate James Jacobs, V68070 pursuant to Penal Code (PC) Section 1170, Subdivision (d)(1), based upon his exceptional conduct while incarcerated. PC Section 1170, subdivision (d)(1) provides that, upon recommendation of the Secretary of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR), the court may recall a previously ordered sentence, provided the new sentence is no greater than the initial sentence.

As the Secretary of CDCR, I take my obligation to public safety very seriously and choose only to make exceptional conduct referrals when an inmate's behavior, while incarcerated, demonstrates a sustained compliance with departmental rules, regulations and requirements as well as prolonged participation in rehabilitative programming. These inmates have not only exhibited exceptional conduct through their ability to obey rules and regulations, but have also demonstrated a commitment to their rehabilitation through voluntary participation in self-help programs.

Inmate Jacobs has received four Rules Violation Reports since reception to CDCR however, he has remained disciplinary free since April of 2009. Inmate Jacob is currently assigned as a Dining Room Worker and he takes a Personal Finance Class through Coastline Community College (Correspondence Course). Additionally, he is participating in Self-Awareness/Self-Improvement Groups, Youth Diversion, and Visual/Performing Arts Programs. Inmate Jacobs has participated in numerous Self-Help Programs and has received a number of certificates and Laudatory Chrono's from these Self-Help Sponsors acknowledging his commitment and dedication to these Self-Awareness/Improvement Groups. Inmate Jacobs met the standards of the General Educational Development and received his High School Equivalency Certificate at Kern Valley State Prison in April of 2009.

Having reviewed the enclosed documentation it appears that inmate Jacobs' sentence warrants the attention of the court. Pursuant to PC Section 1170, Subdivision (d)(1), as the Secretary, I recommend the inmate's sentence be recalled and that he be resentenced.

Sincerely,

RALPH M. DIAZ
Secretary
