Re: LONDON, KEVIN BRYON
CDCR No: H86581
Case No: MA010785
Date of Sentence: November 6, 1996

Dear Honorable Lisa Mangay Chung:

The purpose of this letter is to provide the court with the authority to resentence inmate LONDON, KEVIN BRYON, H86581 pursuant to Penal Code (PC) Section 1172.1, Subdivision (a)(1) based on exceptional conduct while incarcerated. PC 1172.1(a)(1) provides that upon recommendation of the Secretary of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR), the court may consider recall of a previously ordered sentence, provided the new sentence is no greater than the initial sentence.

As the Secretary of CDCR, I take my obligation to public safety very seriously; I only make exceptional conduct referrals when an inmate's behavior, while incarcerated, demonstrates a sustained compliance with departmental rules and regulations, as well as prolonged participation in rehabilitative programming. Inmate LONDON, KEVIN BRYON has not only exhibited exceptional conduct through their ability to obey rules and regulations, but has also demonstrated a commitment to their rehabilitation through voluntary participation in various self-help programs, and vocational and educational programs. Inmate LONDON, KEVIN BRYON has displayed dedicated participation in their rehabilitation.

Only the Warden of the institution where the inmate is incarcerated can make a recommendation for a potential resentencing referral. Once a recommendation is received, the inmate's case factors are compiled and then thoroughly reviewed by the Director of Adult Institutions. Only a select few cases are approved by the Secretary and referred to the court.

Inmate London has received six Rules Violation Reports since being received to CDCR on December 3, 1996, however, inmate London has remained disciplinary free since July of 2004.
