Re: William Joe Long
CDCR No: G64902
Case No: TA099269-01
Date of Sentence: March 16, 2009

Dear Honorable John J. Cheroske:

The purpose of this letter is to provide the court with the authority to resentence inmate, William Long, G64902, pursuant to Penal Code (PC) Section 1170, Subdivision (d)(1). PC Section 1170, subdivision (d)(1) provides that, upon recommendation of the Secretary of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR), the court may recall a previously ordered sentence, provided the new sentence is no greater than the initial sentence.

As the Secretary of CDCR, I take my obligation to public safety very seriously and choose only to make exceptional conduct referrals when an inmate's behavior, while incarcerated, demonstrates a sustained compliance with departmental rules, regulations and requirements as well as prolonged participation in rehabilitative programming. These inmates have not only exhibited exceptional conduct through their ability to obey rules and regulations, but have also demonstrated a commitment to their rehabilitation through voluntary participation in self-help programs.

Inmate Long has received two Rules Violation Reports since his reception to CDCR however, he has remained disciplinary free since December of 2010. Inmate Long is currently assigned as a porter. Inmate Long has participated in Self-Help Groups, such as; Alcohol Anonymous, College, Substance Abuse and Recovery Inside, Criminal and Addictive Thing Recovery Groups, Parent/Family Support, Yoga, Cultural, Recreational, Educational Group's, Inside Out Writers, Inside Out Dads, Getting Out by Going In (GOGI), How to GOGI book course, In Cell Programs, Narcotics Anonymous, Self-Awareness and Improvement Group in Inmate Council, Veteran Support Groups, and was issued his General Educational Development on January 4, 1996. Staff indicated inmate Long is very polite and respectful.

Having reviewed the enclosed documentation it appears that inmate Long's sentence warrants the attention of the court. Pursuant to PC Section 1170, Subdivision (d)(1), as the Secretary, I recommend the inmate's sentence be recalled and that he be resentenced.

Sincerely,

RALPH M. DIAZ
Secretary
