Re: Louis Timothy Maldonado
CDCR No: H11234
Case No: KA053742
Date of Sentence: December 10, 2001

Dear Honorable Charles Horan:

The purpose of this letter is to provide the court with the authority to resentence inmate Louis T. Maldonado, H11234 pursuant to Penal Code (PC) Section 1170, Subdivision (d)(1), based upon his exceptional conduct while incarcerated. PC Section 1170, subdivision (d)(1) provides that, upon recommendation of the Secretary of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR), the court may recall a previously ordered sentence, provided the new sentence is no greater than the initial sentence.

As the Secretary of CDCR, I take my obligation to public safety very seriously and choose only to make exceptional conduct referrals when an inmate's behavior, while incarcerated, demonstrates a sustained compliance with departmental rules, regulations and requirements as well as prolonged participation in rehabilitative programming. These inmates have not only exhibited exceptional conduct through their ability to obey rules and regulations, but have also demonstrated a commitment to their rehabilitation through voluntary participation in self-help programs.

Inmate Maldonado has received seven Rules Violation Reports but has remained disciplinary free since July of 2017. Inmate Maldonado is currently assigned as a Dining Room Line Server. Inmate Maldonado also participates in voluntary e-learning, visual and performing arts and has prior participation in the Narcotics Anonymous and Alternatives to Violence self-help programs. Maldonado has received laudatory chronos from these self-help sponsors acknowledging his commitment and dedication to these self-awareness and improvement groups. Inmate Maldonado met the standards of the General Educational Development and received his High School Equivalency Certificate at Ironwood State Prison.

The Honorable Charles Horan

Sincerely,
