Re: Kinzie Gene Noordman
CDCR No: X11811
Case No: FRE006600
Date of Sentence: May 13, 2005

Dear Honorable Michael A. Smith:

The purpose of this letter is to provide the court with the authority to resentence inmate Kinzie Noordman, X11811, pursuant to Penal Code (PC) Section 1170, Subdivision (d)(1). PC Section 1170, subdivision (d) provides that, upon recommendation of the Secretary of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR), the court may recall a previously ordered sentence, provided the new sentence is no greater than the initial sentence.

As the Secretary of CDCR, I take my obligation to public safety very seriously and choose only to make exceptional conduct referrals when an inmate's behavior, while incarcerated, demonstrates a sustained compliance with departmental rules, regulations and requirements as well as prolonged participation in rehabilitative programming. These inmates have not only exhibited exceptional conduct through their ability to obey rules and regulations, but have also demonstrated a commitment to their rehabilitation through voluntary participation in self-help programs.

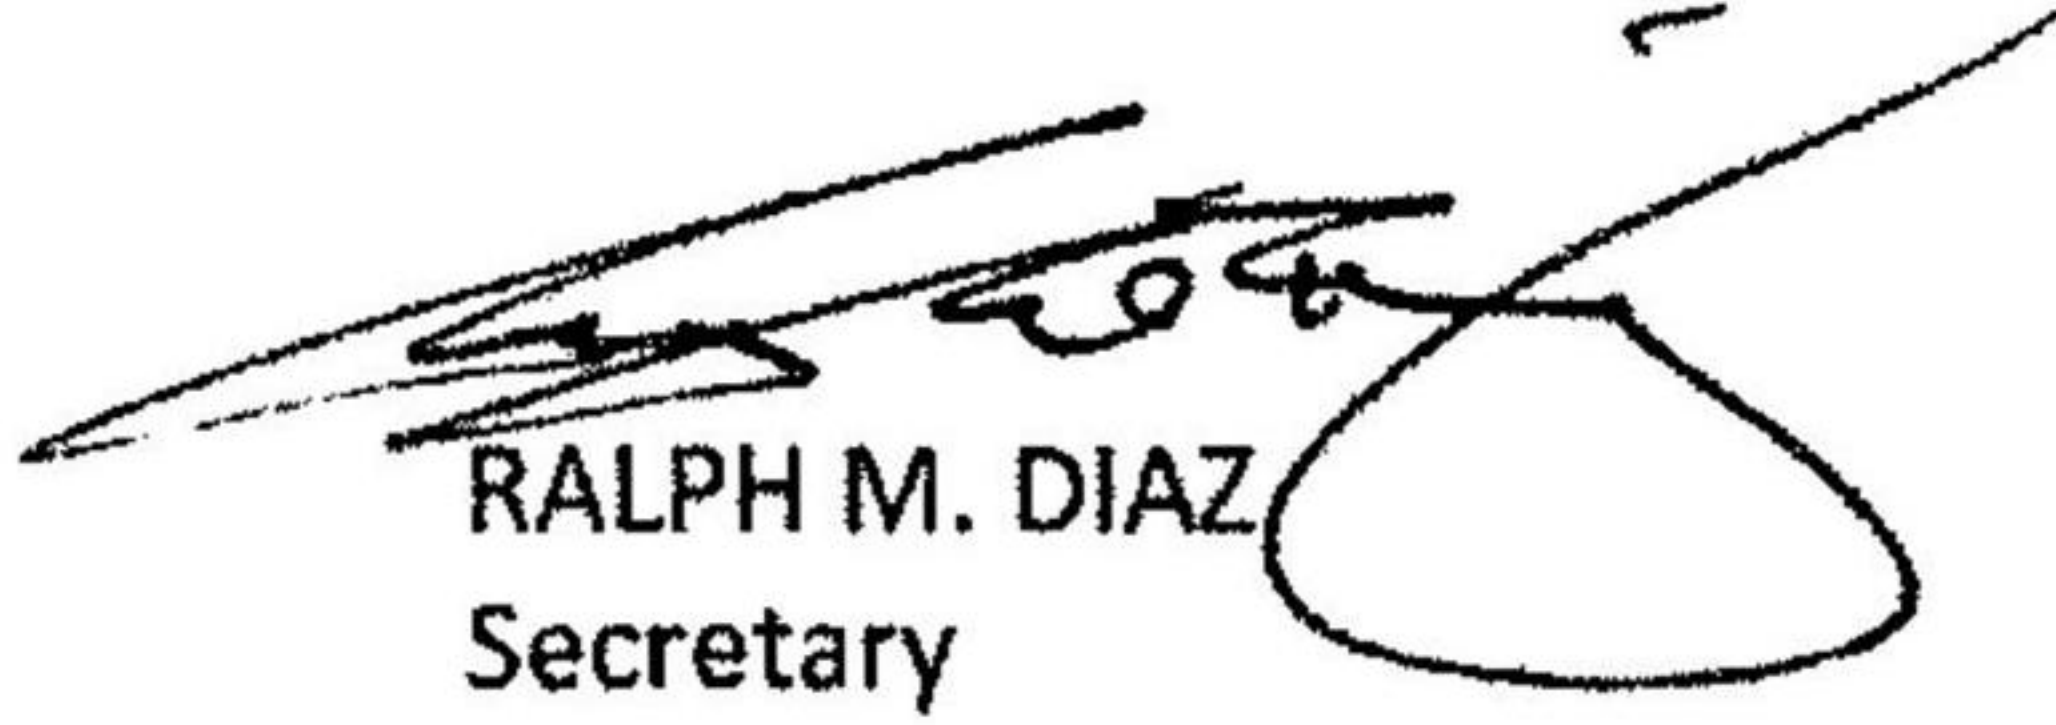

Inmate Noordman is commended for remaining disciplinary free since being received to CDCR on May 24, 2005. Inmate Noordman is currently assigned to the Prison Industry Authority Technical Education-Computer Coding. Inmate Noordman also participates in college (voluntary), e-Learning/Community College Prep, Women of Wisdom, Bridges to Life, Celebrate Recovery, and the Puppy Program. Inmate Noordman has been commended for the development and implementation of the Bridges to Life Program and the Gifted Hands Outreach Project at the Central California Women's Facility, and was instrumental in the development and success of the Celebrate Recovery Program. Inmate Noordman appears to have strong family ties and has been commended for her participation and facilitation in self-help groups.

Having reviewed the enclosed documentation it appears that inmate Noordman's sentence warrants the attention of the court. Pursuant to PC Section 1170, Subdivision (d), as the Secretary, I recommend the inmate's sentence be recalled and that she be resentenced.

Sincerely,

RALPH M. DIAZ
Secretary
