Re: John Wesley Parratt
CDCR No: J81555
Case No: 95F00785
Date of Sentence: October 26, 1995

Dear Honorable James J. Long:

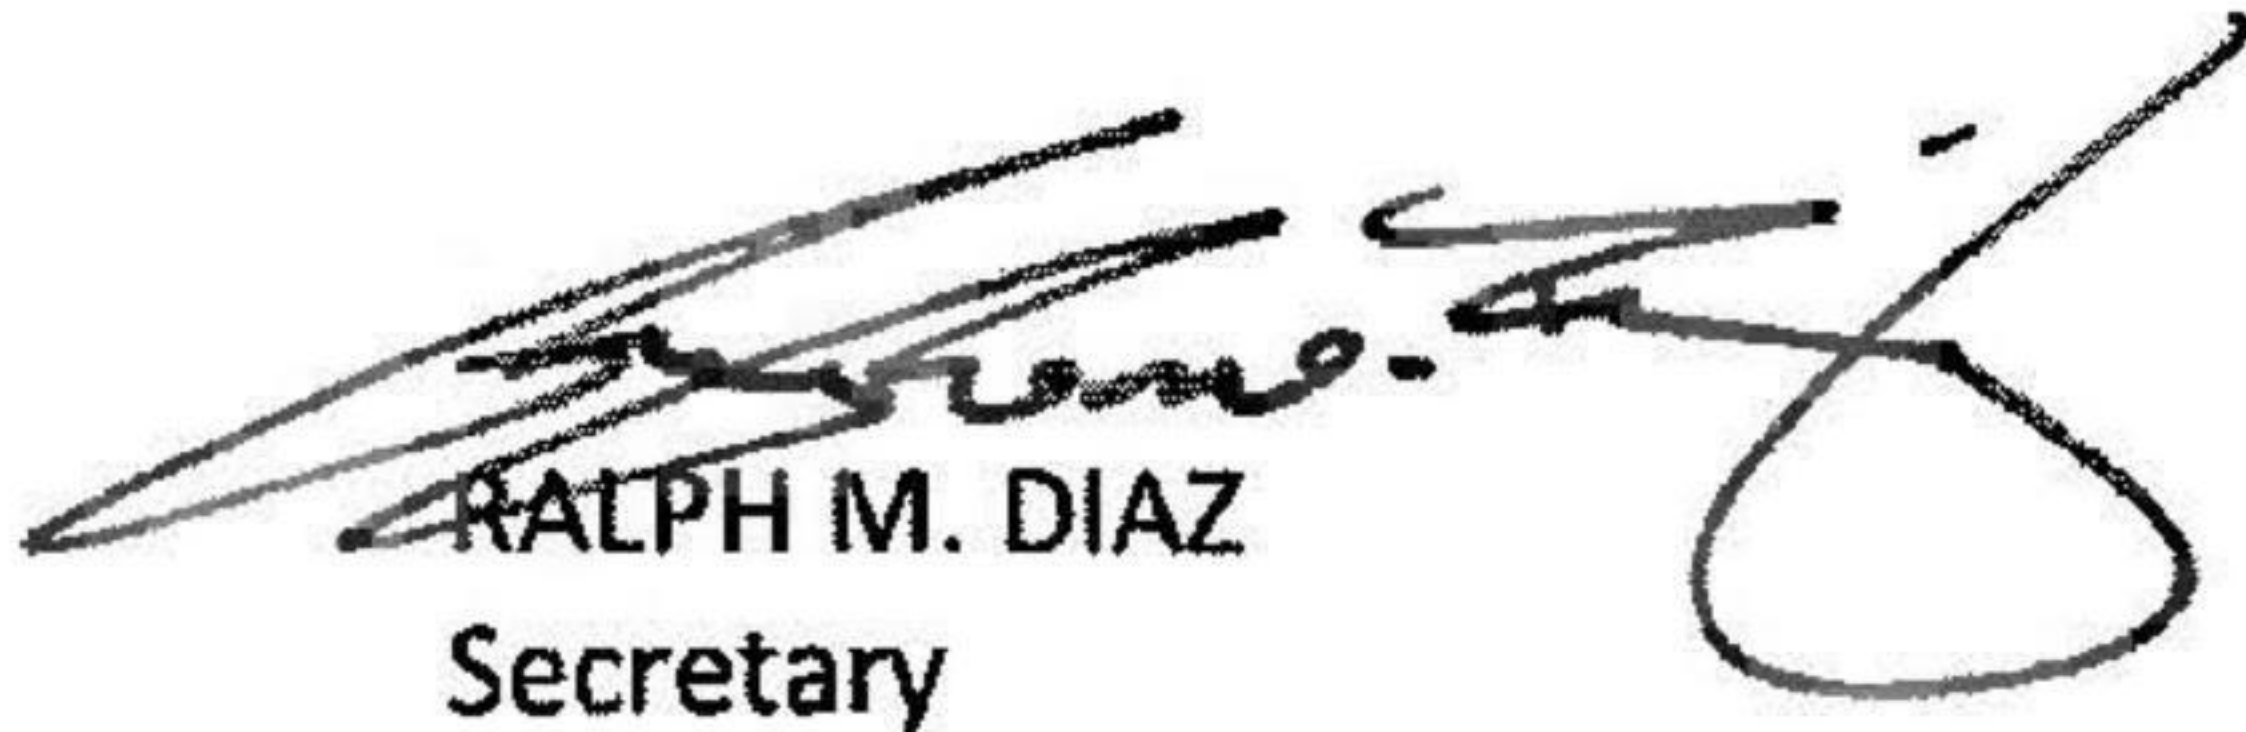

The purpose of this letter is to provide the court with the authority to resentence inmate Parratt, J81555 pursuant to Penal Code (PC) Section 1170, Subdivision (d)(1). PC Section 1170, Subdivision (d) provides that, upon recommendation of the Secretary of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR), the court may recall a previously ordered sentence, provided the new sentence is no greater than the initial sentence.

As the Secretary of CDCR, I take my obligation to public safety very seriously and choose only to make exceptional conduct referrals when an inmate's behavior, while incarcerated, demonstrates a sustained compliance with departmental rules, regulations and requirements as well as prolonged participation in rehabilitative programming. These inmates have not only exhibited exceptional conduct through their ability to obey rules and regulations, but have also demonstrated a commitment to their rehabilitation through voluntary participation in self-help programs.

Inmate Parratt is commended for remaining disciplinary free during his current incarceration period of nearly 24 years. He has continuously programmed in a positive manner and has taken full advantage of rehabilitative opportunities to successfully transition back into society. He has participated in a multitude of self-help and re-entry preparation programs as evidenced by the numerous laudatory and certificates located within his file.

Having reviewed the enclosed documentation it appears that Parrat's sentence warrants the attention of the court. Pursuant to PC Section 1170, Subdivision (d), as the Secretary, I recommend the inmate's sentence be recalled and that he be resentenced.

Sincerely,

RALPH M. DIAZ
Secretary
