

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

P.O. Box 942883
Sacramento, CA 94283-0001

August 16, 2018

The Honorable Bruce F. Marrs
Judge of the Superior Court
County of Los Angeles
111 North Hill Street
Los Angeles, CA 90012

Re: Jensen Ramos
CDC No: T86444
Case No: KA057535
Date of Sentence: March 10, 2005

Dear Honorable Bruce F. Marrs:

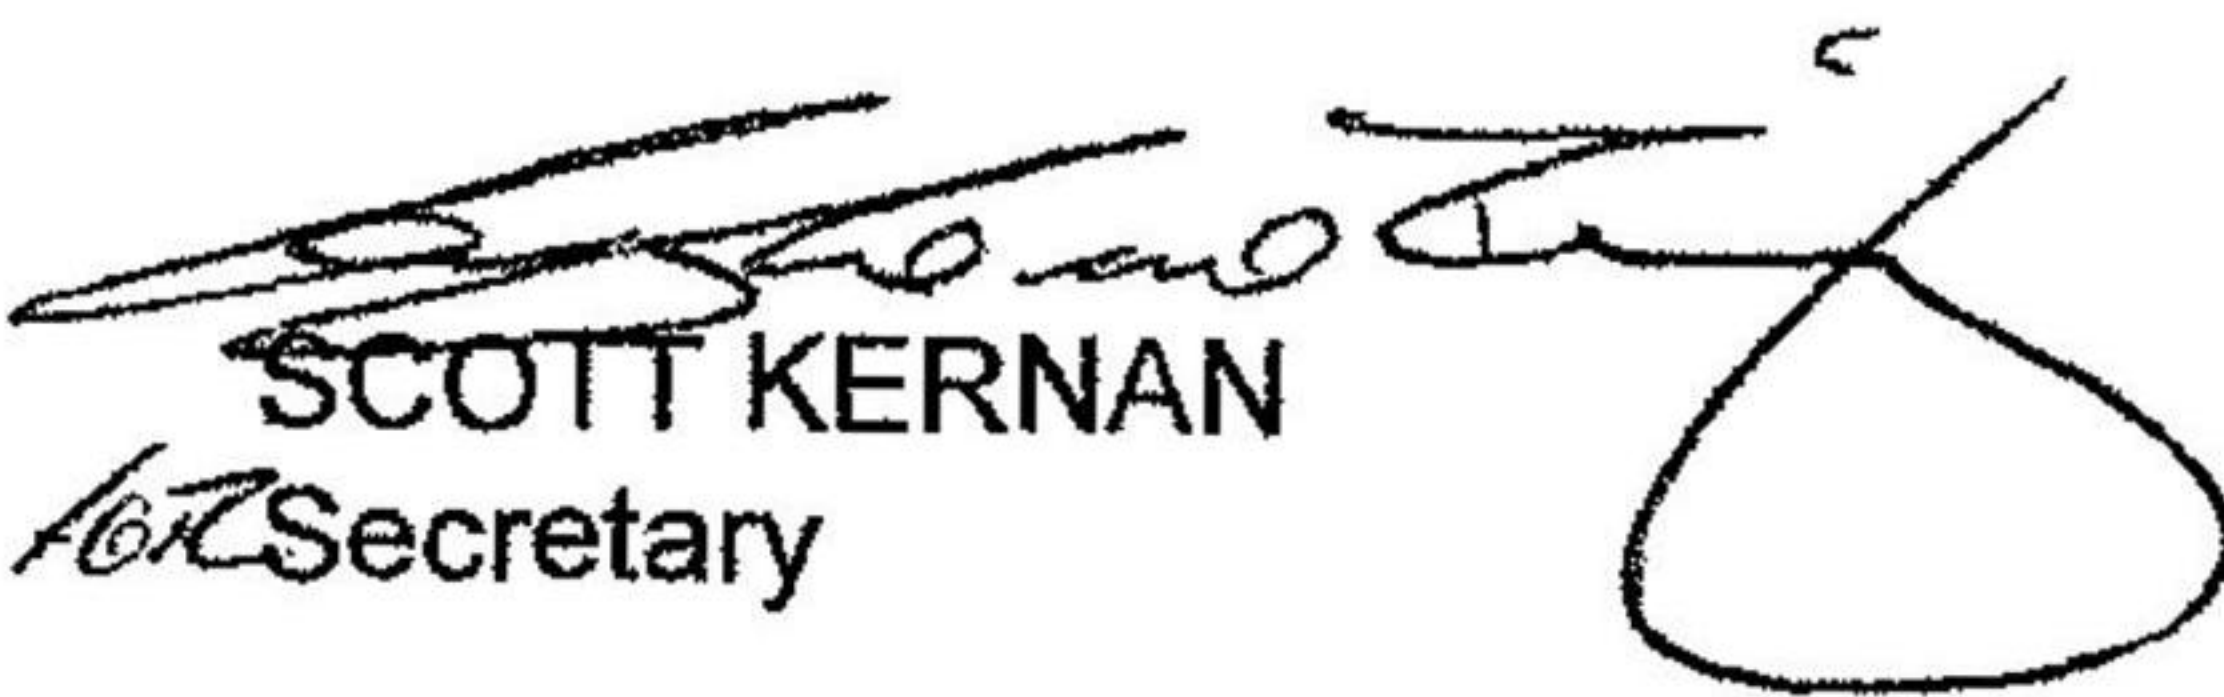

The purpose of this letter is to provide the court with authority to resentence pursuant to Penal Code Section 1170, subdivision (d)(1). Section 1170, subdivision (d) provides that, upon recommendation of the Secretary of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, the court may recall a previously ordered sentence, provided the new sentence is no greater than the initial sentence.

Inmate Ramos has received four serious rules violation reports consisting of delaying a Peace Officer dated November 2, 2009, participation in a riot dated August 22, 2007, participation in a riot dated May 15, 2007, and refusing to stand for count dated May 11, 2006. He is currently assigned to Vocational Electrical Works and as a mentor, teacher, event organizer, and service dog trainer for "Paws for Life". Past assignments include college courses, victim awareness, alternatives to violence, narcotics anonymous, alcoholic anonymous and clerk positions. He is commended for receiving 31 laudatory chrono's during his incarceration including one from California State Prison, Lancaster's Warden, D. Asuncion, recognizing inmate Ramos for his growth and contributions over the past 15 years and numerous laudatory chronos for his participation in the Paws for Life program. He serves as Team Leader and has amassed more than 186 weeks of formal training hours, he was also recognized for spending more than 420 hours teaching group classes to more than 50 dog trainers. He received a Certificate of Recognition from California State Assemblyman Tom Lackey in recognition of commitment to training and rehabilitating canines of Karma Rescue's Paws for Life program. He has programmed exceptionally well during his incarceration and should be commended for his behavior and work ethic. During his incarceration he has taken full advantage of opportunities to prepare for his eventual release to society.

Inmate Ramos was 17 years of age when he committed his offense and is now a 34 year old first term offender received from Los Angeles County on March 17, 2005, pursuant to a conviction for three counts of PC 664/187 Attempted Murder 1st with enhancements of PC 12022.53 use of a firearm and PC 186.22 street gang act, two counts of PC 246 discharge of a firearm at occupied motor vehicle with enhancements PC 12022.53 for use of a firearm and PC 186.22 street gang act. He was sentenced to 64 years to life and has a current minimum eligible parole date of August 15, 2054. There are no active or potential holds, warrants, or detainers. He is not associated with any security threat groups at this time.

Having reviewed the enclosed documentation it appears that inmate Ramos' sentence warrants the attention of the court. Pursuant to Section 1170, subdivision (d), as the Secretary, I recommend the inmate's sentence be recalled and that he be resentenced.

Sincerely,

SCOTT KERNAN
Secretary

Enclosures:

Abstract of Judgment – Prison Commitment – Indeterminate
Diagnostic Study and Evaluation Report

cc: Honorable Daniel J. Buckley, Los Angeles County Presiding Judge
Sherri R. Carter, Los Angeles County Court Executive Officer
Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office
Los Angeles County Public Defender's Office