Re: Mary Susan Anderson aka Isabel Jones, Mary Sue Reese
CDCR No: W72019
Case No: GA073706-01
Date of Sentence: May 26, 2010

Dear Honorable Suzette Clover:

The purpose of this letter is to provide the court with the authority to resentence inmate Mary S. Reese, W72019 pursuant to Penal Code (PC) Section 1170, Subdivision (d)(1), based upon her exceptional conduct while incarcerated. PC Section 1170, subdivision (d)(1) provides that, upon recommendation of the Secretary of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR), the court may recall a previously ordered sentence, provided the new sentence is no greater than the initial sentence.

As the Secretary of CDCR, I take my obligation to public safety very seriously and choose only to make exceptional conduct referrals when an inmate's behavior, while incarcerated, demonstrates a sustained compliance with departmental rules, regulations and requirements as well as prolonged participation in rehabilitative programming. These inmates have not only exhibited exceptional conduct through their ability to obey rules and regulations, but have also demonstrated a commitment to their rehabilitation through voluntary participation in self-help programs.

Inmate Reese received one Administrative Rules Violation Report but has remained disciplinary-free since January of 2019. Inmate Reese is currently not assigned to a job or educational program, noting removal from her most recent assignment as a Porter due to medical limitations. However, Inmate Reese participates in Beyond Violence, Defy Ventures, Narcotics Anonymous, the Prison Fellowship Program, Healing Trauma, Freedom to Choose, the CODA Program, and the Prison Education Project. Reese has received numerous certificates and laudatory chronos from these self-help sponsors acknowledging her commitment and dedication to these self-awareness and improvement groups. Inmate Reese met the standards of the General Educational Development and received her High School Diploma from George Washington High School.

Having reviewed the enclosed documentation it appears that inmate Reese's sentence warrants the attention of the court. Pursuant to PC Section 1170, Subdivision (d)(1), as the Secretary, I recommend the inmate's sentence be recalled and that she be resentenced.

Sincerely,

KATHLEEN ALLISON
Secretary
