Re: Julio Santos
CDCR No: G00143
Case No: TA087572-01
Date of Sentence: November 19, 2007

Dear Honorable John J. Cheroske:

The purpose of this letter is to provide the court with the authority to resentence inmate Julio Santos, G00143 pursuant to Penal Code (PC) Section 1170, Subdivision (d)(1), based upon his exceptional conduct while incarcerated. PC Section 1170, subdivision (d)(1) provides that, upon recommendation of the Secretary of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR), the court may recall a previously ordered sentence, provided the new sentence is no greater than the initial sentence.

As the Secretary of CDCR, I take my obligation to public safety very seriously and choose only to make exceptional conduct referrals when an inmate's behavior, while incarcerated, demonstrates a sustained compliance with departmental rules, regulations and requirements as well as prolonged participation in rehabilitative programming. These inmates have not only exhibited exceptional conduct through their ability to obey rules and regulations, but have also demonstrated a commitment to their rehabilitation through voluntary participation in self-help programs.

Inmate Santos has received two Rules Violation Reports since his date of incarceration however, he has remained disciplinary free since October of 2012. Inmate Santos is currently assigned as an Offender Mentor Intern. Inmate Santos participates in Anti-Recidivism Coalition, Alcoholics Anonymous, Addiction Counseling Program, Criminal and Gang Members Anonymous, Healing Dialogue and Action, Prisoner of Peace, and Lifer's Self-Help Groups. He was previously involved in Narcotics Anonymous, Family Relationships, Reaching Our Communities Crocheting Program, Relapse Prevention, Trapped Online, Anger Management, Self-Reflection/Evaluation, New Way Gang Intervention,

Breaking Free, and religious studies from the Emmaus Correspondence School. Inmate Santos has received 2 letters of support, numerous certificates, laudatory and general chronos from these Self-Help Sponsors acknowledging his commitment and dedication to these Self-Awareness and Improvement Groups. Inmate Santos has completed over 2,000 hours as an Offender Mentor Intern, and he is no longer on apprenticeship. He is a certified Drug and Alcohol Counselor. Staff note interactions with Santos have been very positive as he is always respectful and they have had no issues with him. Staff also noted Santos is willing to share his past with others in order to further their own rehabilitation.

Having reviewed the enclosed documentation it appears that inmate Santos' sentence warrants the attention of the court. Pursuant to PC Section 1170, Subdivision (d)(1), as the Secretary, I recommend the inmate's sentence be recalled and that he be resentenced.

Sincerely,

RALPH M. DIAZ
Secretary
