Re: TAYLOR, CURTIS WAYNE
CDCR No: AC7491
Case No: 08F5142 and 07F1047
Date of Sentence: April 12, 2010

Dear Honorable Stephen H. Baker:

The purpose of this letter is to provide the court with the authority to resentence inmate Taylor, AC7491 pursuant to Penal Code (PC) Section 1172.1, Subdivision (a)(1) based on exceptional conduct while incarcerated. PC 1172.1(a)(1) provides that upon recommendation of the Secretary of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR), the court may consider recall of a previously ordered sentence, provided the new sentence is no greater than the initial sentence.

As the Secretary of CDCR, I take my obligation to public safety very seriously; I only make exceptional conduct referrals when an inmate's behavior, while incarcerated, demonstrates a sustained compliance with departmental rules and regulations, as well as prolonged participation in rehabilitative programming. Inmate Taylor has not only exhibited exceptional conduct through their ability to obey rules and regulations but has also demonstrated a commitment to their rehabilitation through voluntary participation in various self-help programs, and vocational and educational programs. Inmate Taylor has displayed dedicated participation in their rehabilitation.

Only the Warden of the institution where the inmate is incarcerated can make a recommendation for a potential resentencing referral. Once a recommendation is received, the inmate's case factors are compiled and then thoroughly reviewed by the Director of Adult Institutions. Only a select few cases are approved by the Secretary and referred to the court.

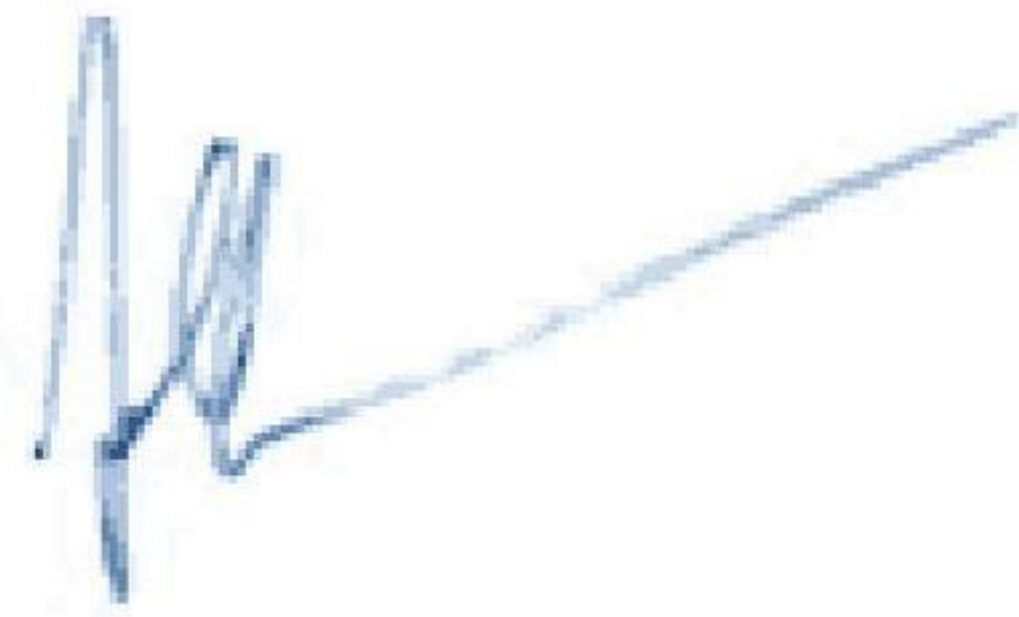

Inmate Taylor has received two Rules Violation Reports since being received to CDCR on May 11, 2010, however, Taylor has remained disciplinary free since April 2012. Inmate Taylor is currently assigned as an Inmate Day Laborer, and voluntarily assigned to Alcoholics Anonymous. Inmate Taylor also participates in multiple rehabilitative groups and college. Inmate Taylor has received numerous certificates and laudatory chronos from group sponsors acknowledging their commitment and dedication to these self-awareness and improvement groups.

Having reviewed the enclosed documentation it appears that inmate Taylor's sentence warrants the attention of the court. Pursuant to PC 1172.1, as the Secretary, I recommend the inmate's sentence be recalled and that he be resentenced.

Sincerely,

JEFF MACOMBER

Secretary
