Re: Keon Taylor
CDCR No: V25060
Case No: VA076824
Date of Sentence: February 4, 2004

Dear Honorable M. L. Schuur:

The purpose of this letter is to provide the court with the authority to resentence inmate Keon Taylor, V25060 pursuant to Penal Code (PC) Section 1170, Subdivision (d)(1), based upon his exceptional conduct while incarcerated. PC Section 1170, subdivision (d)(1) provides that, upon recommendation of the Secretary of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR), the court may recall a previously ordered sentence, provided the new sentence is no greater than the initial sentence.

As the Secretary of CDCR, I take my obligation to public safety very seriously and choose only to make exceptional conduct referrals when an inmate's behavior, while incarcerated, demonstrates a sustained compliance with departmental rules, regulations and requirements as well as prolonged participation in rehabilitative programming. These inmates have not only exhibited exceptional conduct through their ability to obey rules and regulations, but have also demonstrated a commitment to their rehabilitation through voluntary participation in self-help programs.

Inmate Taylor has received six Rules Violation Reports, but has remained disciplinary free since March of 2015. Inmate Taylor is currently assigned as Dental Office Porter and to on-site College. His supervisor notes Taylor is a hard worker with a good-hearted attitude towards custody staff, non-custody staff, and fellow inmates. Taylor was described as a key worker during the Coronavirus pandemic. The supervisor believes that Taylor will be a productive member of society upon parole. Inmate Taylor also participates in Lifer's groups, Narcotics Anonymous, Celebrate Recovery, Criminals and Gangs Anonymous, and Alcoholics Anonymous. Taylor has received some certificates and laudatory chronos from these group sponsors acknowledging his commitment and dedication to these self-awareness and improvement groups. Inmate Taylor met the standards of the General Educational Development and received his High School Diploma at the California Correctional Institution.

Having reviewed the enclosed documentation it appears that inmate name's sentence warrants the attention of the court. Pursuant to PC Section 1170, Subdivision (d)(1), as the Secretary, I recommend the inmate's sentence be recalled and that he be resentenced.

Sincerely,

KATHLEEN ALLISON
Secretary
