Re: Keith Tribble
CDCR No: T19937
Case No: YA043915
Date of Sentence: May 21, 2001

Dear Honorable Mark S. Arnold:

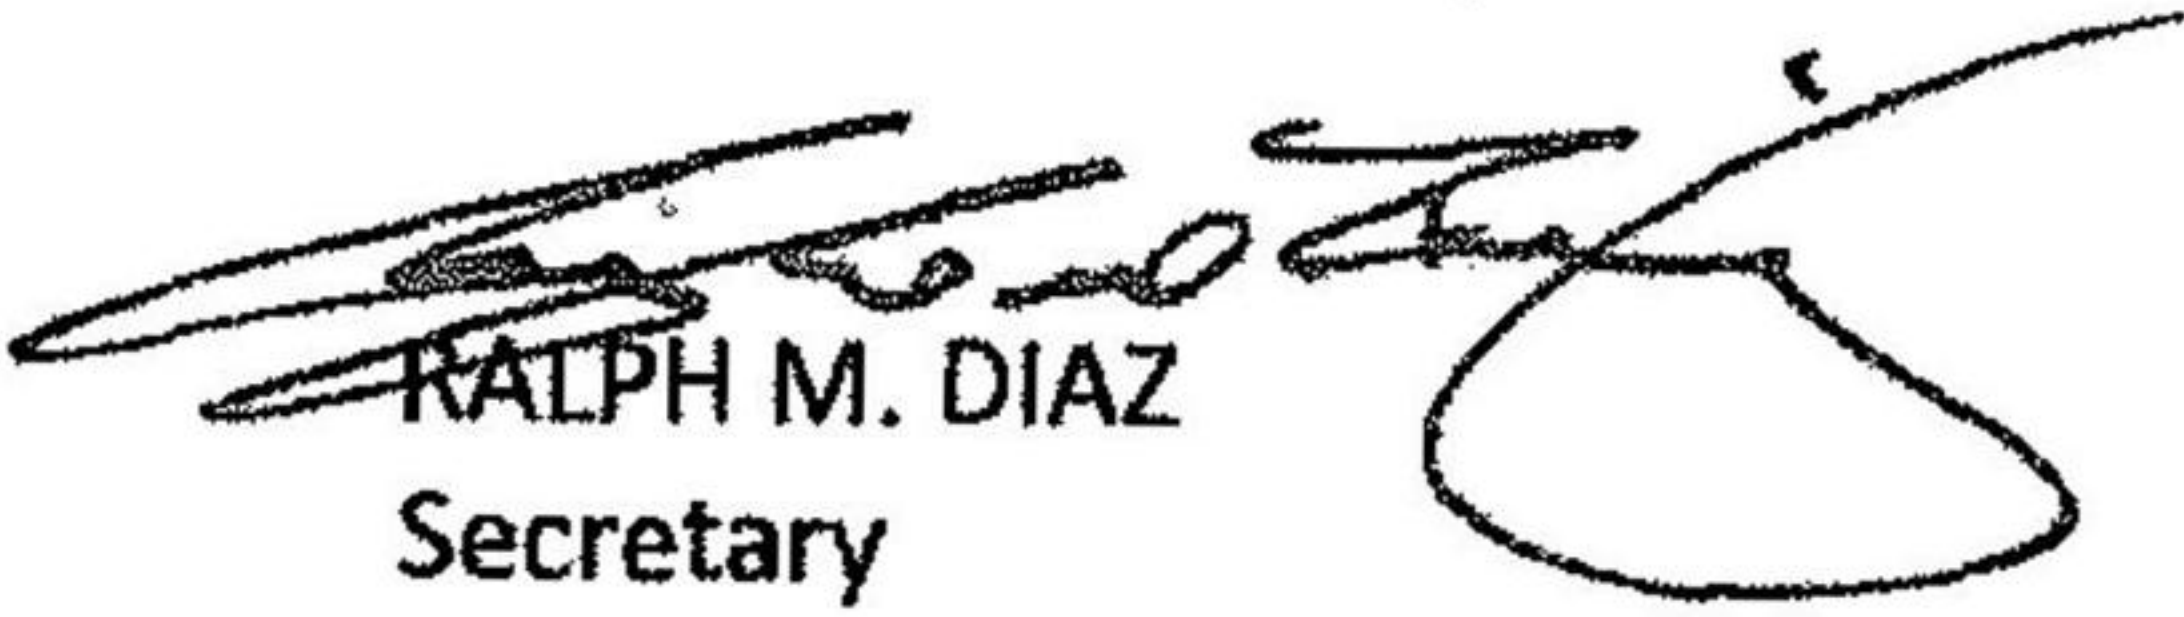

The purpose of this letter is to provide the court with the authority to resentence inmate Keith Tribble, pursuant to Penal Code (PC) Section 1170, Subdivision (d)(1). PC Section 1170, Subdivision (d) provides that, upon recommendation of the Secretary of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR), the court may recall a previously ordered sentence, provided the new sentence is no greater than the initial sentence.

Tribble has been disciplinary free since December of 2013, and has programmed exceptionally well at his assigned job and in the housing unit. Tribble was 34 years of age, when he committed his current offense and is now 52 years of age. It should be noted that Tribble is considered a model inmate in the housing unit, with no known concerns or issues. He has been assigned to the Offender Mentor Program for one year, where he has been a facilitator and mentor recruit. He is considered a good candidate and is on schedule to receive his State Certification by June of 2019. Tribble has also completed classes in Self-Help, Self-Awareness, Self-Improvement Groups, Anger Management, Substance Abuse Disorder Treatment, and Cognitive Behavior Modification Therapy. Tribble has taken full advantage of rehabilitative opportunities in order to prepare himself for his eventual release to society.

The Honorable Mark S. Arnold

Having reviewed the enclosed documentation it appears that inmate Tribble's sentence warrants the attention of the court. Pursuant to PC Section 1170, Subdivision (d), as the Secretary, I recommend the inmate's sentence be recalled and that he be resentenced.

Sincerely,

RALPH M. DIAZ
Secretary
