Re: Jamel Laron Young
CDCR No: F60010
Case No: MA028244-01
Date of Sentence: November 30, 2006

Dear Honorable Lisa Magay Chung:

The purpose of this letter is to provide the court with the authority to resentence inmate Jamel L. Young, F60010 pursuant to Penal Code (PC) Section 1170, Subdivision (d)(1), based upon his exceptional conduct while incarcerated. PC Section 1170, subdivision (d)(1) provides that, upon recommendation of the Secretary of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR), the court may recall a previously ordered sentence, provided the new sentence is no greater than the initial sentence.

As the Secretary of CDCR, I take my obligation to public safety very seriously and choose only to make exceptional conduct referrals when an inmate's behavior, while incarcerated, demonstrates a sustained compliance with departmental rules, regulations and requirements as well as prolonged participation in rehabilitative programming. These inmates have not only exhibited exceptional conduct through their ability to obey rules and regulations, but have also demonstrated a commitment to their rehabilitation through voluntary participation in self-help programs.

Inmate Young has received one Rules Violation Report; however, he has remained disciplinary free since December of 2012. Inmate Young is currently assigned as a Clerk in the Associate Warden's Office. Inmate Young also participates in the self-help programs; Long Term Offender Programs Anger Management, Criminal Thinking, Denial Management, Family Relations, Victim Impact, Substance Abuse, Criminal Gang Members Anonymous, CARE, Kid CAT, and Realize. Young has received numerous certificates, laudatory chronos, and letters of support from these group sponsors acknowledging his commitment and dedication to these self-awareness and improvement groups. Inmate Young met the standards of the General Educational Development and received his High School Equivalency Certificate at Desert Winds High School in Lancaster, California.

Having reviewed the enclosed documentation it appears that inmate Young's sentence warrants the attention of the court. Pursuant to PC Section 1170, Subdivision (d)(1), as the Secretary, I recommend the inmate's sentence be recalled and that he be resentenced.

Sincerely,

KATHLEEN ALLISON
Secretary
