Re: Edward Francis Sciosciolo
CDCR No: V71933
Case No: 62-098019
Date of Sentence: July 29, 2011

Dear Honorable Mark S. Curry:

The purpose of this letter is to provide the court with the authority to resentence inmate Edward Sciosciolo, V71933 pursuant to Penal Code (PC) Section 1170, Subdivision (d)(1), based upon his exceptional conduct while incarcerated. PC Section 1170, Subdivision (d)(1) provides that upon, recommendation of the Secretary of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR), the court may recall a previously ordered sentence, provided the new sentence is no greater than the initial sentence.

As the Secretary of CDCR, I take my obligation to public safety very seriously and choose only to make exceptional conduct referrals when an inmate's behavior, while incarcerated, demonstrates a sustained compliance with departmental rules, regulations and requirements as well as prolonged participation in rehabilitative programming. These inmates have not only exhibited exceptional conduct through their ability to obey rules and regulations, but have also demonstrated a commitment to their rehabilitation through voluntary participation in self-help programs.

Inmate Sciosciolo has remained disciplinary free since being received to the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR) on August 11, 2011. Inmate Sciosciolo is currently assigned as a Teacher's Aide and his current supervisor notes Sciosciolo's performance as exceptional. Inmate Sciosciolo also participates in Alternatives to Violence as a Facilitator, Veteran's In Prison groups, and is currently enrolled in community college courses. Inmate Sciosciolo has received numerous certificates and laudatory chronos from group sponsors, and correctional staff, acknowledging his commitment and dedication to these self-awareness and improvement groups. Inmate Sciosciolo met the standards of the General Educational Development and received his High School Diploma from Bensalem High School, Bensalem, Pennsylvania.

Having reviewed the enclosed documentation it appears that inmate Sciosciole's sentence warrants the attention of the court. Pursuant to PC Section 1170, Subdivision (d)(1), as the Secretary, I recommend the inmate's sentence be recalled and that he be resentenced.

Sincerely,

KATHLEEN ALLISON
Secretary
