Re: Annie Abbago
CDCR No: WA0014
Case No: BA323415-02
Date of Sentence: July 31, 2009

Dear Honorable Curtis B. Rappe:

The purpose of this letter is to provide the court with the authority to resentence inmate Annie Abbago, WA0014 pursuant to Penal Code (PC) Section 1170, Subdivision (d)(1), based upon her exceptional conduct while incarcerated. PC Section 1170, Subdivision (d)(1) provides that, upon recommendation of the Secretary of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR), the court may recall a previously ordered sentence, provided the new sentence is no greater than the initial sentence.

As the Secretary of CDCR, I take my obligation to public safety very seriously and choose only to make exceptional conduct referrals when an inmate's behavior, while incarcerated, demonstrates a sustained compliance with departmental rules, regulations and requirements as well as prolonged participation in rehabilitative programming. These inmates have not only exhibited exceptional conduct through their ability to obey rules and regulations, but have also demonstrated a commitment to their rehabilitation through voluntary participation in self-help programs.

Inmate Abbago, has remained disciplinary free since being received to CDCR on September 2, 2009. Inmate Abbago is currently assigned as Clerk and her supervisor notes her work performance is exceptional. Inmate Abbago also participates in Parenting/Family Support, Self-Reliance, and Victim Awareness groups, as well as educational opportunities. Abbago has received numerous certificates and laudatory chronos from these group sponsors, acknowledging her commitment and dedication to these self-awareness and improvement groups. Abbago has received letters of support from family and friends, re-entry programs,

The Honorable Curtis B. Rappe

and CDCR staff. Inmate Abbago has graduated from Coastline Community College, while serving her term and has earned an Associate in Arts Degree Having reviewed the enclosed documentation it appears that inmate Abaggo's sentence warrants the attention of the court. Pursuant to PC Section 1170, Subdivision (d)(1), as the Secretary, I recommend the inmate's sentence be recalled and that he be resentenced.

Sincerely,
