Re: Norma Cortez
CDCR No: WE1726
Case No: BA345971
Date of Sentence: June 15, 2011

Dear Honorable Dennis J. Landin:

The purpose of this letter is to provide the court with the authority to resentence inmate Norma Cortez, WE1726 pursuant to Penal Code (PC) Section 1170, Subdivision (d)(1), based upon her exceptional conduct while incarcerated. PC Section 1170, Subdivision (d)(1) provides that upon, recommendation of the Secretary of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR), the court may recall a previously ordered sentence, provided the new sentence is no greater than the initial sentence.

As the Secretary of CDCR, I take my obligation to public safety very seriously and choose only to make exceptional conduct referrals when an inmate's behavior, while incarcerated, demonstrates a sustained compliance with departmental rules, regulations and requirements as well as prolonged participation in rehabilitative programming. These inmates have not only exhibited exceptional conduct through their ability to obey rules and regulations, but have also demonstrated a commitment to their rehabilitation through voluntary participation in self-help programs.

Inmate Cortez has remained disciplinary free since being received into CDCR on June 5, 2011. Cortez is currently assigned to General Education Development and her instructor notes she has a positive attitude regarding learning and is a positive influence on the class culture. Cortez currently participates in Substance Abuse Recovery Support groups and has participated in numerous other self-help programs during her term of incarceration. Cortez has received numerous certificates and laudatory chronos from these group sponsors, as well as institutional staff acknowledging her commitment and dedication to successful rehabilitation.

The Honorable Dennis J. Landin

Having reviewed the enclosed documentation it appears that inmate Cortez's sentence warrants the attention of the court. Pursuant to PC Section 1170, Subdivision (d)(1), as the Secretary, I recommend the inmate's sentence be recalled and that he be resentenced.

Sincerely,

KATHLEEN ALLISON

Secretary
